The Old Manor House

By Charlotte Turner Smith (1749-1806)

The proud, cruel and arrogant Mrs. Rayland never married. Therefore, "Rayland Hall," the old Manor House of the title, had to pass to their heir, Somerive, whom they never treated kindly. According to the British laws at the time, the heir must be the oldest son. But what is to be done when the second son is more worthy of it - and is more beloved by Miss Rayland herself? And must the fact that he is in love with a servant and dependent of Miss Rayland take its toll? (Summary by Stav Nisser)
